

Media Invitation

The Media is invited to attend the Brakes Direct Border Ranges Rally. Rally Headquarters is at the Kyogle Showgrounds, Summerland Way, Kyogle NSW and will be operational from Thursday the 12th to Sunday 15th July.

Media and photographers are requested to 'sign on' at Rally Headquarters before attending any competitive stage of the event. There will be restricted internal access to the competitive stages for those not registered with the Confederation of Australian Motorsport (CAMS).

Friday the 13th July is a Media Stage based at the village of Wiangaree on Summerland Way, 10 minutes north of Kyogle. It will operate between 10.00am and noon. A number of top crews and vehicles will be in attendance. The organisers will escort media personnel into the stage to access the best viewing points. Invited people will be able to experience the thrill of this sport. However, as expected there are restrictions. Please speak with the event organisers. Attendees at this stage will be able to 'sign on' at Wiangaree.

A Ceremonial start will be held on Friday night the 13th July at Geneva Street, Kyogle from 5.00pm to 7.00pm. The cars will be on display during this time.

Saturday there is a Spectator point at the corner of Hillyards and Webbs Road. First car is due through this point at 8.30am, 11.20am and 2.15pm.

Other access points will be by referencing the maps of the course which are available from Rally HQ or by contacting the organisers and verifying your profession.

We look forward to having you experience his thrilling sport.
